This show is very special for the artists at Art First Gallery and we are so proud that Adam's wife Stephanie and son Addison are willing to share Adam's work with us once again. Sadly, Adam passed away from a battle with cancer in January of 2020, however, his life can be seen in the strokes on his canvas or through the lens in his photography. It is also being passed on through the creativity in his son Addison. Come join us in February as we pay tribute to the life of Adam, an accomplished artist, valued friend, loving father, and cherished husband.
